Meeting

Monday, October 17, 2005

Puyallup Elks Club, 314-27th St. NE, Puyallup Telephone: 253-845-9515
Wet Line 6:30 P.M., Dry Line 7:30 P.M.

Program: Jon Aqui of Puget Sound Fly Fishers will present a program on coho and sea-run cutthroat fishing Monday night. Aqui has lead many outings for the Tacoma club, and presented his show to the South Sound club in Olympia. He'll tie his favorite flies prior to the meeting. Jon deserves a "patience award" from the club. He showed up in June to give the program, but that meeting was scrapped because of an "overbooking" problem at the old meeting place.

Welcome: Don Blakely of Puyallup and Jesus Rivera of Sumner are the newest Alpine Fly Fishers' members. They attended last month's meeting at the Elks. Make an effort to get to know these gentlemen.

Web Site: Steve Egge has put in numerous hours to launch Alpine Fly Fishers' new website www.alpineflyfishers.org Check it out and thank him for his efforts.

Missing: Can't find the Fly of the Month list we generated at last month's meeting, so I have no idea who is responsible for October's newsletter entry. We'll try again next month. (E-Fishback)

December Program: From Pat Blackwell: "We would like to put together a slide show for the year in review. We can use any type of film, media: slides, negatives, prints or digital. I have a film/slide scanner and a photo scanner on the way. If members that have any of this type of media will bring it to the October or November meeting (preferably the October meeting) we can get the pictures on a disc. For those that have gone digital, bring your pictures on a disc.

“If you would be so kind as to put your name on the back of any pictures and on the frame of any slides that you bring in it would assist us in getting them back to their rightful owner. Those with negatives please put them in an envelope with your name on it, as negatives are the easiest to misplace and end up with the wrong person. With discs just felt tip the name side. A short bio with time (of year), place and who will allow us to give the proper credit at our December meeting.

“While we are looking for pictures of fishing, fish and fishermen we would also like something with camping, someone cooking their favorite camp meal, a little wildlife, in other words anything that our members took pictures of while out in piscatorial pursuit.”
